Program Highlights

There are multiple Delta Vision initiatives underway and a decision on the future of the Delta will be made in the next two years. Unlike past planning efforts that focused primarily on the Delta's water resource issues and ecosystem, these current efforts have expanded to include land use planning, recreation, flood management, and energy, rail and transportation infrastructure. How – or if – all these competing demands can be accommodated is the question facing local, state and federal officials, Delta residents, businesses and utilities, resource managers, local agencies and other Delta stakeholders.

This one-day workshop will explore these pressing issues and explain Delta vision planning underway. Moderators will encourage panel debates among knowledgeable speakers on all sides of these important issues. Audience members will be invited to join break-out sessions to provide feedback and offer suggestions. The Foundation will prepare and distribute a workshop summary to share Delta visioning efforts with those who cannot attend the workshop.

Workshop topics include:

- The Importance of the Delta: The View from the Valley
- Developing a Delta Vision
- Assessing Risks to the Delta: The Delta Risk Management Strategy
- The Value of the Delta: Why Do We Need a New Delta Vision? What's at Stake for the San Joaquin Valley?
- Input on a Delta Vision: Participant Breakout Groups
- Shaping a Vision: How Do We Move Forward?

Check in will begin at 8 a.m. The program will begin at 8:45. The workshop will adjourn at 4:00 p.m. Complimentary Foundation materials will be distributed, including the newly revised Layperson's Guide to the Delta and the Delta Warning DVD.
